

16th Annual Fun Fair

Saturday March 24, 2007 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM
Coffman Memorial Union, U of M Main Campus

You and your family are invited to attend the 2007 Fun Fair! You'll be treated to a day of fascinating exhibits, activities, presentations, and information! It's a real "hands on" math and science experience plus a look at the excitement that a career in science, engineering, or mathematics can provide. This year's exhibits are still being resolved, but here are some previous year's exhibits, to give you an idea of what might be there this year.

A sample of events from previous years.

- U of M - Ophthalmology (eyes)
- U of M - Neuroscience (brains)
- U of M - Aerospace (NASA)
- Lego Dacta - Lego robotics
- HGA - Architecture
- MN Microscopy Society - Microscopes
- Xcel Energy-Safety
- Capitol Hill - Probability games
- Cryogenics - The science of cold
- Harmonic Motion - fun with a slinky
- B*E*S*T* Electric Cars, of course
- And there will be more ... come and see!
